CHCSS00098 INDIVIDUAL SUPPORT – DISABILITY SKILL SET

COURSE OUTLINE

About

The Individual Support - Disability skill set is perfect for those already working within a community care or aged care role that desires to further their education in supporting people with disability.

You will discover how to contribute to ongoing skills development by allowing the person in your care to make their own life choices. Working with each person's unique strengths to build their self-confidence, understand and apply individual plans into activities, and encourage them to be active and participate in the community, focusing on social inclusion and health and well-being.
